

Photos by Ron Medvescek, The Arizona Daily Star

A real blast — Some of the 34 students attending Summer Astronomy Camp, top, watch a model rocket blast off at the Rincon High School practice field. With the moon in the background, a spent rocket descends by parachute. The students attending the University of Arizona camp built the rockets Sunday and sent them aloft yesterday.

